- A major in the humanities, i.e., history, literature, philosophy, or a related field
- Passion for pursuing a career in the humanities
- Interest in the importance and relevance of the humanities in the 21st century
- Strong GPA, personal essay, and recommendation from a professor or academic advisor

Instructions

Please send the following to scholarships@disabroad.org with the subject line “James Larson Memorial Scholarship”:

- Name
- Major
- Home university
- Semester of enrollment at DIS
- Program (core course) of enrollment at DIS (e.g. Modern Frames, European Art and Cinema)
- Personal statement (max 750 words) answering the following questions: What role do you see the humanities playing in your life: professionally, personally, and as a study abroad student? Why do you feel studying the humanities is essential in the 21st century, and what is one issue that we face as a global society that could be alleviated by a strong grounding in the humanities?
- At least one recommendation from a faculty member or academic advisor familiar with your background in the humanities - must be on official letterhead. If preferred, the recommender can send directly to scholarships@disabroad.org

Note: Summer awards are not offered for this scholarship at this time

Submit completed materials to: scholarships@disabroad.org

You are welcome to apply regardless of your admission status. Complete applications will be reviewed and awardees notified via email within two weeks of the deadlines reported on our website. Scholarships are normally awarded as a credit toward DIS fees, and may not be used to cover your deposit. Scholarships are not intended to reduce the financial aid package from your institution; however, it is your responsibility to report any awards to your financial aid office. Applications submitted after the deadline will not be accepted.
